

2nd July 2021

This week we would like to use our newsletter to say a big "THANK YOU" and "WELL DONE" to all of the St Joseph's School Community; Our Pupils, their Parents/Carers and extended Families; Our Staff; Our Governors; All who contributed to the creation of the Raffle Hampers and All who purchased tickets in hope to win a prize.

We have been able to raise approximately £600 towards end of year events for all of our children. A full count will take place shortly and the total amount, notified to parents next week. A "FANTASTIC" amount, which will help all of our children to celebrate the end of a very difficult 18 months.

Our Raffle draw took place at 2.45pm this afternoon, via an in school TEAMS Assembly, with our Head Boy and Head Girl along with their deputies pulling out the winning tickets.
