

Structure

Title

The title of the non-chronological report.

Introduction

Gives you information about the text subject.

Main Body

Facts and information about the subject is written in sections. Each section has a subheading. Include a picture or diagram.

Conclusion

Summarises the report and gives a final interesting fact.

Literacy Knowledge Organiser

Non-Chronological Report

The purpose of the text is to give information to others.

Grammar Focus 1: Subordinating Conjunctions

A conjunction to add additional information.

Leopards are known as big cats because they have cat-like features.

subordinating conjunction

Grammar Focus 2: Present Tense

A tense expressing something that happens in the present time.

Zebras eat fresh grass, twigs, leaves and bark.

present tense

Grammar Focus 3: Possessive Apostrophe

An apostrophe for possession shows what belongs to whom.

A giraffe's tongue is 45-50 centimetres long.

possessive apostrophe

