

Revolution Homework Grid

Over the next half term, please complete a selection of home learning tasks to support the learning you will be doing in the classroom. Over the half term, you should choose at least ONE activity from each category.

House points are up for grabs for those who complete tasks and those who WOW us with their effort!

Revolution
Do it!	Make it!	Write it!
Visit Clumber Park and find out about its Victorian past. Explore the grounds and gardens and see if you can find out about the buildings there.	Using a range of recycled materials, make a Victorian town or slum. Think about the buildings, how they are spaced and what they are used for.	Imagine you are one of the domestic staff of a large Victorian household. You might be a cook, butler, maid, housekeeper or footman. Create a name for this person and create a character profile about them, their job and their life.
Visit Papplewick Pumping Station and look at the Victorian building. Find out what it was used for and make a sketch of the building.	With an adult, take part in some traditional Victorian baking. Use the recipes they followed and create some traditional Victorian treats. Extra bonus points for bringing me a sample!	Research the work of poet Edward Lear who was famous for creating Limericks and nonsense poems. Write a limerick or nonsense poem in this style.
With your family, visit Mansfield Museum and the exhibition of artwork by artist Albert Saxby Buxton.	Look at a variety of portraits of Queen Victoria and how she was portrayed. Create your own portrait of Queen Victoria using whichever artistic media you would like.	Create a quiz about the life of Queen Victoria after researching her life. Get as many people in your family to answer your quiz and see who has the best Victorian knowledge! Bring in to school to test out the class.