

Yesterday the two boys father finished there fresh recent and brand new treehouse and today there gathering there items to put in .They were lucky because it was a bright day and always sunshine at 30 degrees turning 32 .The weather was one of the best ,a big bright yellow and blue sky .It was currently eleven forty seven pm .The two boys Shawn and Michaels felt good and were listening to music till twelve at day. Now was the time to move items across the new grass up the oak wood, AKA there brand new tree house. They were both pumped up. As Michaels step foot inside then Shawn did and at the same time they shouted ITS TIME on the modern future house not really .the achievements went on a shelf in a case. That would be gold trophies silver and bronze medals too.\

Commented [oo1]: