

As she sneaked past her room she stepped on a box, causing an extremely loud noise; she immediately hid behind some boxes, someone walked past her to see what the noise was. She got back up, suddenly, she found a wooden door. As she opened it she found some porcelain dolls, old-fashioned leather shirts, cotton teddy bears, an old rusty silver car, some diamond rings, golden earrings, and seven rubber balls. Suddenly, a worker spotted her and hit her with a bat (the wooden door was the hotel's secret and Narla just found it) she bashed her head really hard on the wall causing her to pass out. somebody found her, she screamed in shock "OH NO! what happened to you!? Are you okay? I will go get the nurse!."
