Homework to hand in on Wednesday's and Friday new homework sent out.

RE	Next week, the word of the week is 'Sacrifice'. During Lent, we reflect on the sacrifice of Jesus and what it means for our lives. The sacrifice of Jesus is a reminder that we are all loved by God, and that we too, are called to live out lives for others as humble servants. Think about someone who makes sacrifices for you and take a moment to thank them for what they do this week.
Reading	Read your reading book daily and fill in your reading record. Make sure you get an adult to sign your reading record.
English	We will be starting our independent write next week. Our balanced argument will focus on the question, should children have to complete homework? Make a list of arguments for and against homework and be ready to share your work on Thursday next week.
Maths	Complete the TT Rockstars task - there are 5 soundcheck games to complete. Use either the area model or formal written method of multiplication to multiply: 1) 25×32 2) 45×16 3) 52×14
Science	Next week is British Science Week. Complete the 'Confusing Cans' experiment at home and record your results. Create a science week poster: BRITISH SCIENCE WEEK POSTER COMPETITION The theme this year is 'Time', - Create a poster on how a certain type of technology has changed over time, or even time-telling technology itself! You could go futuristic and show us how they think the world might look in years to come, or perhaps look at nature - lifecycles, lifespans, evolution and hibernation - nature is full of timely topics. British Science Week 2024 marks the Week's 30th anniversary. You could think about scientific innovations since then, or explore 1994 itself - what was life like 30 years ago? Judges will look for the following: Creativity - creativity on the theme of 'Time' Content - clear and accurate information Effective communication - communicating in an engaging way Closing date: Friday 15th March
