

Superheroes Knowledge Organiser

Martin Luther King

Prior Knowledge

significant historical individuals in their own locality (Robin Hood)

Historical figure - James Cooke was an explorer who discovered New Zealand and was one of the first map makers

Topic links

Enchanted Woodland
Land Ahoy!

Key Information

- in certain periods in history, not everyone was treated fairly because of their race or gender.
- Emmeline Pankhurst worked to change attitudes about equality towards women.
- Martin Luther King Jr. and Rosa Parks worked to change attitudes about equality towards people of different races.
- the actions of people in the past have influenced people today.
- race and gender are protected characteristics, and it is now illegal to discriminate against people with these characteristics.

Subject Specific Vocabulary

gender	Male or female race	Human population
equality	Equal in rights and opportunities for everyone discrimination	.unfair treatment protest	Objecting to an issue
racism	.unfair treatment due to the colour of their skin protected characteristics	There are 9 characteristics that you cannot discriminate against Eg.age, race, religion or disability
Suffragettes	A woman seeking the right to vote through a protest

Emmeline Pankhurst