

Knowledge Organiser - Geography Safari Street Detectives

Key Vocabulary

Savanna (Also known as grasslands)	Prairie or plains covered with tall grasses. They may have scattered bushes and trees. They have seasonal rains and dry periods.
population	Is the number of people living on a certain place wildlife	Animals and plants living naturally in the environment.
continent	A large area of land.
country	A home to a specific group of people controlled by a government.
developing country	A country where people live with less.

African leopard

White/black rhinoceros

African elephant

Cape buffalo

African lion

Prior Knowledge

y 1	Disciplinary Knowledge	Mapwork. To locate countries on maps
y 1	Bright lights, Big City	Know they live in Nottingham, and it is a city in the centre of England, a region called the Midlands.
y 2	Poles Apart	Identify the areas studied in relation to the equator and make predictions about climate
y 2	Poles Apart	Know that the climate in Kenya is very hot as the equator runs through it

Key Information

- 1 Kenya is a country in the continent of Africa.
- 2 England in the UK and Kenya in Africa and can be found on a world map
- 3 Nottingham is a city in England and Nairobi is a city in Kenya.
- 4 Some human and physical features are the same in Kenya and England and some are different.
- 5 Large animals such as buffalos, lions, leopards and rhinos live wild in Kenya which are different to the wildlife in England.
- 6 Kenya is still developing and half live in poverty. Different countries develop in different ways
- 7 Tea and coffee are plants grown in Kenya because of the climate.
- 8 Land usage supports the habitats of the wildlife in Kenya.

Tea plantation

Coffee plant

Acacia tree