

Street Detectives Homework

Be a Street Detective in History and to support our learning complete 3 pieces of homework from the homework grid. You need to choose one from each column, Do it! Make it! Write it! The three pieces of homework needs to be completed by the end of the half-term but if you do it early we can show off our amazing work on the display!

Do it!	Make it!	Write it!
Bring in photographs of your grandparents or parents past. Tell the class all about who is in the photographs and what life was like in the past.	Make a traditional recipe! You could make bread or cakes. Ask a parent or grandparent for ideas! What was their favourite food when they were younger?	Write a street diary with all the exciting things that happen in your street. Remember to use interesting adjectives and verbs.
Visit a local shop with your grown up. Write a shopping list before you go. Pay for your shopping and work out your change.	Draw and label a design for your own fantasy home. What will your home be built from? How will you get in and out of your house? What will you have in your garden? Make a model of your fantasy house using junk materials.	Interview a parent or grandparent! Ask questions on what life was like for them growing up. How was it different to your life?
Visit a local museum or gallery. What can you find out about your local area? Did you see anything you haven't seen before? Take photographs or write about all the things you saw!	Draw a plan or map of your ideal neighbourhood. Who would you like to have living on your street? You might choose fairytale characters, sports champions or pop stars. What type of house would your ideal neighbours have? Create a key to show features on your map. What local amenities would your residents need? For example, Harry Potter might need a wand shop!	Write a letter to the council. Tell them what you would change or what you like about your local area.
