

English : Instructions Knowledge Organiser

Key Vocabulary

command	A sentence type that tells you what to do instructions	Information to tell you what to do
adverb	A word to describe the verb
comma	A punctuation symbol used to separate lists

Structure

Key Information

- 1 Instructions are used as a step by step guide for someone to make an end product
- 2 Commas are used to separate lists of words
- 3 Adverbs are used to describe the verb
- 4 Imperative verbs are bossy verbs and used in commands

Prior Knowledge

Year 1	Sequence sentences to form short narratives.
	Use capital letters at the beginning of sentences.
	Use full stops at the ends of sentences.
Year 2	To identify and use commands
	Use coordination including the conjunctions or, and, but

Worked Examples

Grammar Focus 1: Commas

I need bread, milk, cheese, tea and coffee.

Grammar Focus 2:

Commands and Imperative Verbs and adverbs

Pour carefully into the cup.