Literacy

Next week, we will be beginning our independent write. Collect some ideas of things you could write about in your non-chronological report. You might want to think of a title and then the subtitles with bullet points of information you might include.

R.E

Our new topic is 'Giving All'. Throughout this unit, we are thinking of ways we can give to others. I would like you to consider how you can be more giving. This could be; donating money to charity, passing on clothes or toys that you no longer use, donating to the foodbank or simply giving more time to someone or something.

History

Next week, we will be learning about Greek warfare. What weaponry and armour did the Greeks have to protect them in battle?
